

Your Support

The Metropolitan Symphony Orchestral Association welcomes your individual and corporate contributions. Your tax-deductible donation enables the MSO to fulfill its mission to bring first-class performances to a wide variety of audiences at no charge.

Donated funds cover our general operating expenses which includes building our music library, renting equipment and venues, and engaging professional musicians as guest soloists. Your generous financial participation is greatly appreciated.

Our Mission

The mission of the Metropolitan Symphony Orchestra is to serve two populations: its members and its audiences. For its members, the MSO provides an opportunity for skilled volunteer musicians to join together to perform symphonic music of all periods and styles at the highest artistic level. For its audiences, the MSO provides unique access to symphonic music by performing in a variety of neighborhoods throughout the metropolitan area at no charge.

 Orchestral photograph by William Schrickel

William Schrickel, recently appointed Interim Music Director of the Metropolitan Symphony Orchestra, joined the MSO staff in 1996 and was appointed associate conductor in 1997. He was the 2000 Summer Conductor of the Kenwood Chamber Orchestra. He has also led The Musical Offering and the Chamber Music Society of Minnesota in performances of his own translation of Stravinsky's Histoire du Soldat. Schrickel has conducted a variety of small ensembles on Minnesota Orchestra Sommerfest programs, and has been an active participant in the Minnesota Orchestra's Adopt-A-School program for six years.

Schrickel joined the double bass section of the Minnesota Orchestra in 1976 and became assistant principal in 1995. He has twice performed as soloist with the Minnesota Orchestra under the direction of Leonard Slatkin. Currently a member of the Hill House Chamber Players, he was a founding member of the Minneapolis Artists Ensemble, performing and recording with the MAE for seven seasons.
